LOCATION

The subject site is located in the centre of Ballynahinch on The Square. It has excellent frontage on The Square and benefits from excellent views across The High street. Ballynahinch is a small market town with a population of 6,164 as of 2021. It is a popular commuter town and is located 16 miles south of Belfast; it is also within an easy commute of both Lisburn and Downpatrick, 12 and 11 miles away respectively.

There are a number of well-respected schools based in the town including Ballynahinch and Drumlins Integrated Primary Schools, Assumption Grammar and St Colemans High School.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property has excellent frontage on the main retail core of Ballynahinch and it can also be accessed from the rear via Windmill Street. The steel portal frame, erected under the previous planning application on the site, has subsequently been demolished.

The site is located within the town centre development limit. The portion of the site fronting The Square is zoned as primary retail core and the land to the rear is zoned as white land under the Ards and Down Area Plan 2015. We understand a number of neighbouring properties have easements and rights of way over the rear of the property leading to Windmill Street.
